

Jinny Chalmers Fund for Education Justice

Mission:

The Jinny Chalmers Fund for Education Justice supports family, youth, and educator-led initiatives that amplify and deepen the practices that allow schools and communities to be places where all are recognized as contributing, valued, and integral members. By centering racial justice in practices such as: inclusive education, youth-leadership, family-school partnerships, and teacher education programs, we honor Jinny's fight for racial and social justice in Boston and beyond.

Guiding Principles:

Recognizing the intersectionality of issues connected to fight for justice and equity, the fund is eager to support projects that align with one or more of the following values:

- Equitable, excellent inclusive education
- Racial justice in classrooms, schools, community, and teacher education programs
- Families of students as equal partners with educators in schools
- Decision making process about school issues that prioritize family and teacher voice
- Teacher mentoring
- Developing youth leadership skills and experiential education opportunities
